REPORT RESPECTING FINANCIAL PROVISIONS FOR CANDIDATES AND POLITICAL PARTIES, 2007

The Elections Act (S.Y. 2004, c. 9) states in section 398:

- "(1) The chief electoral officer may report to the Legislative Assembly respecting
- (a) the information contained in returns filed by registered political parties or candidates,
  - (b) anonymous contributions, or
  - (c) any other matter under this Part.
- (2) The chief electoral officer may include in any report under paragraph (1)(a) the names of contributors over $250 and any debt holders."

This report includes the information contained in the annual returns from the registered political parties for the calendar year 2007.

One registered political party filed an annual return for the 2007 calendar year by the deadline of March 31, 2008.

Disclosure and Compliance with the Financial Provisions

The chief electoral officer has included the lists of contributors over $250 to registered political parties. This information is public information pursuant to the Elections Act.

In addition, this report contains the names of candidates at the 2000, 2002 and 2006 general elections who have not filed election financing returns as required by sections 385 and 391 of the Act.

The Elections Act, 2000 contained for the first time a provision for compliance orders. A certificate issued by the chief electoral officer ordered any person who was contravening the Act to cease doing so. These certificates could be issued during the election period, which was from the issue of the writs to the date of the returns to the writs of election. However, election financing returns were not required until 60 days following that date, which was outside the election period.

The Act was amended in 2004 and the time period for compliance with the provisions of the Elections Act was not defined. The chief electoral officer has the ability to ensure compliance with the Act at any time.

Two candidates in the Electoral District of Klondike at the 2006 general election did not file election financing returns in compliance with the Act. Letters or emails requesting this information were sent to the candidates' official agents in January, 2007, and to the candidates in February, 2007. There was no response from the official agents or the candidates.

Glen Everitt, Independent, was served with:

- a) a letter from the chief electoral officer and a Certificate and Compliance Order on August 12, 2007. Mr. Everitt did not respond to this service and did not file the required documents.

- b) a copy of the Certificate of Compliance filed with the Clerk of the Supreme Court, pursuant to s. 353(3) of the Elections Act on January 20, 2008.

Mr. Everitt was advised that the Certificate of Compliance is considered to be a judgment of the Supreme Court in favour of the chief electoral officer.

Mr. Everett contacted the Elections Office and subsequently faxed a document with election expenses information. Documents requiring Mr. Everitt's signature were mailed to him along with a letter requesting that the signed documents be returned to the Elections Office not later than March 10, 2008. The documents requiring a signature were received on Mr. Everitt's behalf on February 27, 2008 in Dawson City. Mr. Everitt responded on March 27, 2008. His election financing return has been accepted.

Mr. Everitt's return states:

- a) that he did not receive any contributions of cash or negotiable instruments;
- b) that his expenses were $1,640.00, as determined by the Elections Office;
- c) that the value of his campaign was $1,655.00.

It is further noted that income tax credit receipts issued to his official agent on September 20, 2006 have not been accounted for and an affidavit concerning these missing receipts has been filed with the return.

Jorn Meier, Yukon New Democratic Party, was served with:

- a) a letter from the chief electoral officer and a Certificate and Compliance Order on July 30, 2007. Mr. Meier did not respond to this order and did not file the required documents.
- b) a copy of the Certificate of Compliance filed with the Clerk of the Supreme Court, pursuant to s. 353(3) of the Elections Act on February 23, 2008. Mr. Meier has not responded to this service.

Mr. Meier was advised that the Certificate of Compliance is considered to be a judgment of the Supreme Court in favour of the chief electoral officer.

Mr. Meier contacted the Elections Office on April 22, 2008.
